Forecast for Saturday 10 Dec 2022

Weather: Cloudy with outbreaks of snow, heavy at times especially across the east of the area from Helmsdale to Ben Wyvis with significant fresh accumulations to relatively low levels. More shelter over Skye and west coast with some sunny intervals. The far north brightening up during the morning, then clearer conditions spreading south in the afternoon, though further scattered snow showers are still expected.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 10% in east, rising 50% as it clears, but 70% or more over west coast and Isles.

Low cloud and visibility: Widespread cloud at 450-600m in east with lower patches, more broken cloud above 800m in west. Poor visibility in heavier snow and nil where blizzard conditions develop. Longer breaks in the cloud in the evening with a general improvement in visibility.
